

Crampfort receives patent to treat pregnancy induced leg cramps

Our Bureau, Mumbai

DURING pregnancy period 50 per cent women suffer with pregnancy induced leg cramps; the pathology of pregnancy induced leg cramps is not exactly identified. It may be due to hormonal imbalance and sometimes the excessive body weight which causes the strain on calf muscles or may be due to nutritional deficiency. It is established that by giving vitamins, minerals and amino acids, it can be subside.

The Crampfort is a real remedy for pregnancy induced leg cramps. The NV Lifecare, an Ahmedabad-based company, has recently received its patent right for the treatment of pregnancy induced leg cramps. The Crampfort is invented by Dr. Sanjay Agrawal and received its patent recently. Crampfort is very successful in pregnancy induced leg cramps. A good number of patients during post marketing surveillance have participated, the feedback was excellent as stated by Atish N

Crampfort is made without any drug interaction, the market size of Crampfort is very high because 50 per cent mothers are suffering with pregnancy

The contents of Crampfort is made without any drug interaction, the market size of Crampfort is very high because 50 per cent mothers are suffering with pregnancy induced leg cramps. Before the Crampfort, there was no specific therapy. Doctors were using analgesics and muscle relaxants

Contractor, SBU Head for NV Lifecare, Ahmedabad. NV Lifecare with its vision to provide innovative medicine to the medical fraternity is proud to present first time in India an innovative product.

Crampfort is a unique combination of minerals, vitamins and amino acids with convenient dosage schedule and easy to administer without any drug interaction with high safety profile being a nutraceutical product. The contents of induced leg cramps. Before the Crampfort, there was no specific therapy. Doctors were using analgesics and muscle relaxants. They all are contra-indicated during pregnancy, where as Crampfort is very safe and effective due to its unique and novel formulation. The concentration of each content is as per the US FDA Pregnancy Index and the Crampfort received its patent right in time without any objection from patent controller. ◆